Customer Reviews

This is a brilliant series, although most of Germany does speak English none of the phrasebooks really address celiac disease. I have this condition and have been nervous to travel overseas and try to explain gluten problems in a foreign language. Having some terms like these makes me feel more secure and more likely to go ahead and realize my travel dreams! My husband has high blood pressure and while not likely to go seriously wrong I would feel horrible if something happened and I couldn't explain what was wrong with him! In addition I have listened to this series in Italian, Portuguese and French. All of these countries are on my personal bucket list and now I can easily travel knowing that if we need medical attention we are ready to go.
