Customer Reviews

If you love Bruce and you want to play "Thunder Road", this is for you. It is not a beginners book. You need to be at least an intermediate player.

The book is good, as advertised, and contains more-or-less faithful reproductions of the piano parts of his songs (as opposed to arrangements centered solely around the melody). One thing I overlooked when purchasing this, though, is the omission of at least one huge song. I see Born to Run ... didn't Bruce have another "Born" song? Where's Born in the USA?

I bought it almost exclusively for Racing in the Street. And it sounds great. I also bought the Springsteen keyboard songbook which has a better song list in my opinion. Buy both and you'll have a pretty good Bruce collection

I did not order this. I was not asked if I wanted it. Yet I have an invoice.
