Angels: 100+ Angel Painting Masterpieces - Sculptures, Frescoes, Stained Glass, Mosaics

Synopsis

Angels in Art History contains 100+ Angel reproductions from the greatest artists in history, covering the Judeo/Christian Religions with title, date and introduction below. Book has been formatted with Table of Contents and thumbnail gallery for Kindle readers and Tablets (use rotate feature on landscape/horizontal images for optimal viewing). When William Blake was eight years old he saw a tree full of Angels. Few of us have been blessed by such visions, but we all have an idea of what Angels look like - eternally young, winged, haloed, floating among clouds. Artists have portrayed them as divine messengers of God, spiritual guides and protectors of man. Angels in Art History captures a myriad of angels portrayed by artists ranging from Botticelli, Bouguereau, Memling, and Raphael, Steinle and Tissot. From the first millennium to contemporary times, these divine beings have been represented in oil paintings, sculptures, tapestries, frescoes, stained glass, prints, manuscript illuminations, and mosaics. This enchanting art book visually surveys every aspect of artist's age-old attraction with this irresistible subject.
